Our Exhibition of LENOX CHINA —IS A FITTING TRIBUTE TO THE

—AMERICAN POTTERS' SKILL AND ART.

Lenox China is fully equal in every detail to the most noted English china. Lenox models, designs and glazing are not surpassed by any of the china potteries of the old world.

We are displaying recent productions of this foremost American china in "open stock" assortments of rich gold band decoration and distinctive color patterns that express refinement and elegance in a richly appointed table service.

Special Decorations—Crests, Monograms, etc.—are also executed to order on Lenox china.

A beautiful wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Henry Carpenter Bolinus, when her daughter, Miss Lucile Browne Agnew, and Mr. Andrew Whitney Bennett were married in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and friends.

Rev. D. R. Covell performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception.

The bride, who was escorted and later given in marriage by her brother, Mr.
Robert Agnew, wore a lovely gown of white satin and tulle, trimmed with silver lace, the drapery on the bodice caught up with sprays of orange blossoms. Her tulle veil was wreathed with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. Mr. Walter E. Guy was best man for Mr. Bennett.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs.
Bennett left for an extended wedding trip.

Mr. Bennett is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Bennett of this city and is connected with the trade department of the British embassy.

The out-of-town guests present at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gehret and Miss E. J. Twaddell of
